INNOCENT MAN

May Have Been Lynched Near Smithland, Tenn.

Report Made Public That Victim Might Have Established Innocence at Second Trial.

The committee of Smithville, Tenn., citizens that investigated the lynching of Charles Davis, a white man, accused of assaulting Miss Kate Hughes, has made public a report that if Davis had been granted a trial he would have been able to establish his innocence. Seven men are in jail in Nashville on the charge for safekeeping. It is alleged that they had a hand in the lynching of Davis. Friends of the dead man say they will lynch the prisoners in turn in the event they are taken to Smithville.

The alleged lynchers will be removed to Smithville in a few days, and there is every indication of serious trouble.

TO SEE THE CITY SIGHTS.

Observation Cars on Street Railroads Coming into Vogue.

The plan of observation cars on street railroads, first made popular in Washington, has spread, and as it has spread it has developed and many improvements in cars have been made. In San Francisco an observation car has four rows of longitudinal seats arranged in tiers or steps, the two inside rows being higher than the outside ones. The advantage of this arrangement is that the passengers seated on the two inside seats may have a clear view of those occupying the other rows. The car is 45 feet long and ten feet wide and can seat 72 passengers. Several gates make ingress and egress possible without incommoding passengers. In San Francisco these cars make three trips daily, each taking about three and one-half hours. All the points of local interest are included in the route and stops are made at specially interesting places.

A Belgian Smoking Contest.

Two hundred and six smokers recently took part in the competition organized by the society called De Jonge Pijpenrookers. The first prize was awarded to M. Devos, of the Society Les Pijpots de Laeken, who kept his pipe going for 1 hour and 53 minutes, while the second and third went to two Louvain smokers, the times respectively being 1 hour and 43 minutes and 1 hour and 42 minutes. A record was established by Sieur Mertens, of Louvain, last year, whose time was 2 hours and 3 minutes, and thus became the champion of Belgium.

TOO OBLIGING.

Story Showing Folly of Taking Too Much for Granted.

She stood at the corner of Arapahoe and Fifteenth, anxiously watching the passing procession of cars. Now she would dart to the middle of the street, and then quickly back to the shelter of a fatherly telegraph post. Then she would make another spasmodic sprint toward the other side, but nervously retrace her steps, wringing her hands the while.

Finally the big policeman who had been watching her closely stepped quickly forward and was by her side. Catching her by the most convenient arm, lifting her bodily from the sidewalk he rushed her across the street, dodging cars and wagons, and finally landed her safe on the other side. Then it was she turned an indignant face upon her protector, and with flashing eyes heaved all kinds of distress.

Then she smiled and said sweetly: "Would you mind taking me back again? I wanted to catch the Broadway car!"

A few minutes later a big policeman wandered down Fifteenth street, kicking himself.—Denver Times.

PAN-AM. EXPOSITION

The Problem of Caring For Those Who Visit Buffalo This Summer Solved

By

Dr. Pierce's Free Bureau of Information—Registered Accommodations For 100,000 People.

It has been published broadcast that Buffalo lacks accommodation for guests visiting the Pan-American Exposition. The statement is utterly without foundation. It has been a point of honor with Buffalo, that all guests shall be accommodated properly and reasonably. For example, Dr. Pierce's Free Bureau of Information has registered accommodations for one hundred thousand guests, in the most desirable homes and best locations in the city of Buffalo. Every room offered to guests has been inspected. Many rooms have been rejected by the Bureau because of location or some other unsatisfactory feature. The rooms offered by Dr. Pierce include the choicest rooms obtainable in Buffalo.

ALL IS FREE.

Dr. Pierce's Bureau was not organized for profit, but as a public spirited enterprise for the best interests of Buffalo and its Pan-American guests. There is absolutely no charge, fee or gratuity for any service rendered by the Bureau either to visitors or to householders.

This Free Bureau is located in a beautiful old mansion of Buffalo, at 625 Main Street, just opposite the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of which Dr. R. V. Pierce is chief medical director. It is fitted up with reception-rooms, wash-rooms, dressing-rooms, parlors, and all conveniences for out-of-town visitors.

It includes a postal department where guests may receive mail, and writing rooms with facilities for the writing and mailing of letters. There is also an identification department where strangers may meet friends, or in case of accident may be identified and their friends notified.

FREE GUIDE BOOK.

In connection with this Free Bureau Dr. Pierce issues a free guide book to the Pan-American, Buffalo and vicinity. This book contains maps of Buffalo and the Exposition together with such information most useful and necessary for the guidance and direction of strangers in a strange city.

REGISTER AT ONCE.

The question of where you are going to lodge is of prime importance and should be settled first of all. Have all mail, telegrams and sent in care of the Bureau, if you wish.

As soon as you arrive in Buffalo proceed at once to the Bureau, at 625 Main Street, register and secure your lodging. All cars run to Main Street and connect with Main Street line. Transfers are furnished without extra charge. All Main Street cars stop at Dr. Pierce's Bureau. The time of the railroad station to the Bureau is about ten minutes. Dr. Pierce's Bureau is the only one organized without a view to profit. It can therefore do more and do it on a more liberal scale than is possible for any bureau which must measure the service it gives by what is to be paid for that service.

With the large list of choice rooms on the books of the Bureau no guest can be disappointed in securing suitable lodgings who goes direct to 625 Main Street to Dr. Pierce's Free Bureau.

No Absolute Certainty.

"You want to marry my daughter, do you? What reason have you to think, young man, she cares for you?"

"None at all sir, except that she always kisses me good night when I take my leave after calling on her, and says she'll be awfully lonely till she sees me again. But I don't know much about the ways of girls, sir."—Chicago Tribune.

PROCTOR KNOTT'S

Rabbit Story Very Applicable to the Sampson-Schley

Controversy as to Which of the Two Deserve Greatest Credit.

Since the Sampson-Schley controversy has grown acute again there has been considerable reference to Proctor Knott's "rabbit story" in connection with the credit for the victory at Santiago. For the benefit of those who do not recall the story as first printed it is here reproduced:

Ex-Gov. Proctor Knott and John Yerkes were discussing the claims of Sampson and Schley to the credit of smashing Cervera at Santiago. Mr. Yerkes took the ground that all the honor of that memorable conflict belonged to Admiral Sampson and was inclined to entirely ignore Commodore Schley's part in the affair. The Governor listened until his companion had finished, and then with the characteristic twinkle in his eye said: "My dear sir it is exceedingly gratifying to me to hear you take the position you have in this matter. It is like a balm to my conscience and settles a point that has worried me many a day. I was walking through the woods once with a boy friend of mine when we saw a rabbit run in to a sinkhole; then I told the boy to keep watch while I went to get some fire to smoke the rabbit out. When I returned the boy had the rabbit. I took it away from him, claiming that it belonged to me because I had told him to catch it if it came out. That was over fifty years ago, and you are the first man who has ever agreed with me that the rabbit was mine. I feel now that the rabbit was mine. I feel now that I was right in taking it and my conscience is at rest." Mr. Yerkes looked solemn for a few moments, then smiled a feeble smile and changed the subject.

Beauty is born in the blood. Beauty is more than "skin deep." It is blood deep. When the blood is tainted by disease the flesh will feel it and the skin will show it. Sallow or muddy complexions, pimples, blotches, and eruptions are only the surface signs of impure blood. Face washes, lotions, complexion powders, may palliate the evils but they cannot cure the disease. The only cure is to cleanse the blood of the poisonous matter which is the cause of the outbreak in the flesh and skin. Impure blood can be absolutely purified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Its effect on flesh and skin is marked. Sores heal and disappear. The skin becomes smooth, and regains its natural color. The eyes brighten and sparkle, the whole body is radiant with the brightness and beauty of health. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, assists the action of the "Discovery," by cleansing the system of clogging matter.

Reading Aloud.

People with chest complaints are recommended by medical men to read aloud as this strengthens throat, lungs and chest muscles alike. The reading should be deliberate, without being allowed to drag, and the enunciation clear, the body being held in an easy, unstrained, upright position, so that the chest will have free play. The breathing should be natural and as deep as possible without undue effort.

Bottled Tears as Medicine.

The London Family Doctor: A physician who has recently returned from Persia says that the natives still believe that human tears are a remedy for certain chronic diseases. At every funeral the bottling of mourners' tears is one of the chief features of the ceremony. Each mourner is presented with a sponge with which to mop his face and eyes, and after the burial these sponges are presented to the priest, who squeezes the
